BHAKTI SHYAMA CARE CENTRE

1 Balham New Road, London, SW12 9PH

The Bhakti Shyama Care Centre is a modern, purpose built 25 place care centre which provides high quality, personalised 24-hour nursing and dementia care specifically designed to meet the needs of elders from the Hindu community. The home is located in a quiet residential street and conveniently served by public transport. The centre provides:

- Well trained Gujarati and Hindi speaking staff who fully understand and respect Hindu cultural, religious and dietary needs.
- The facility to broadcast regular prayers and religious activities from the adjoining Radha Krishna Temple Shyama Ashram.
- Menus designed to provide nutritionally balanced, freshly prepared, traditional home cooked Vegetarian Cuisine meeting the strict religious dietary requirements of the orthodox Hindu faith.
- Religious festivals celebrated with traditional food specially prepared for the occasion.
- All bedrooms have en-suite shower and toilet facilities and are decorated to an exceptional standard. Bedrooms are equipped with a flat screen television and a nurse call-bell system and residents have the option to have a personal telephone line and internet connection.
- The communal lounges and dining rooms are designed to be homely and social places, ideal for interaction with other residents and the wider community.
- Delightful landscaped sensory courtyard.

The Care Centre is operated by the Abbey Total Care Group Limited a family run business which operates 10 other care homes in and around greater London and has over 25 years experience providing high quality personalised care to over 475 residents.
